

AVIAVIP UNVEILS 14 NEWLY DESIGNED FBOS FOR THE SUMMER SEASON

AviaVIP, the leading FBO group in Europe, has successfully completed the full refurbishment of 14 FBOs in Spain (Palma de Mallorca, Ibiza, Bilbao, Valencia, Valencia, Sevilla, Jerez, Alicante, Menorca, Malaga), France (Nice, La Rochelle, Marseille) and the Netherlands (Amsterdam).

The extensive refurbishment project has transformed these FBO infrastructures into state-of-theart facilities, with upgraded amenities and a harmonized sleek and modern design. The VIP and crew lounges have been revamped to provide a luxurious and comfortable environment for clients and crew.

Pascal Matha, Director of AviaVIP Nice, expressed his satisfaction with the completion of the 300sm lounge refurbishment for the 2024 summer season. "We have put in a tremendous amount of effort to deliver a newly designed infrastructure in time for the busy weeks of the Cannes Movie Festival and Monaco Grand Prix The initial feedback from clients has been exceptionally positive, with high praise for the new ambiance and improvements made to the VIP and crew lounges. "

"The recent opening of newly designed FBOs in Spain signify the ongoing execution of a substantial investment strategy, further demonstrating our commitment to delivering exceptional FBO services. The harmonized lounge design, which reflects AviaVIP's new brand identity, will be as well completed in Malaga by early June" explained John Kay, Country Manager Spain

Jerome Ferasin, AviaVIP's Chief Strategy and Sales Officer confirmed the company's commitment to providing outstanding facilities in multiple locations with this ambitious refurbishment project. "Our objective is to renovate at least five new VIP infrastructures annually, ensuring that AviaVIP consistently enhances quality of its services. The next phase of refurbishment projects for all 55 FBOs will continue after the summer season, starting with Rome, Italy, and Brussels, Belgium. No matter where our customers are headed, we are committed to providing them with the distinctive ambiance that defines AviaVIP."
